Description

Buckle up, growers, because Clone2Order's ORANGE DROPZ is here to blow your mind with a zesty explosion of orange candy vibes!

Born from a wild seed hunt in the lab at our Fire Factory, this pheno cultivar is a genius remix of Mimosa and the legendary Orange Punch, backcrossed to perfection for a super compact, high-octane plant that's bursting with flavor.

Picture buds dripping with beta-caryophyllene, linalool, and limonene—terpenes that dance together to create a mouthwatering mandarin orange-candy aroma that'll have your grow room smelling like a citrus fiesta!

Despite its petite frame, ORANGE DROPZ pumps out massive yields faster than you can say "juicy," making it a dream for home cultivators in legal markets like California, Colorado, and New York. 21+ only, for legal cultivation—check local laws and spark this citrus sensation in your garden!
